

We've written this fund factsheet assuming you have some experience of investing. This means that although we have tried to write as much as possible in plain language, we may have used certain words or phrases that might not be familiar to you, particularly if you are new to investing. Its purpose is to help you understand how the fund is invested and performing. You should not use it on its own for making investment decisions. It is not an offer to buy or sell any investments or shares. If there's something you don't understand, please contact your adviser. If you don't have an adviser, please call us, we can help you find one near you.

Fund objective

The Fund aims to achieve above average capital growth over the long term. It looks to outperform the S&P 500 Index after charges, when measured over rolling 3-year periods.

It is actively managed and invests at least 75% of its assets in a concentrated portfolio of shares of companies domiciled in the United States of America (US), or which have significant US business operations.

The Fund will select companies in which the fund manager has a high conviction that the current share price does not reflect the prospects for that business. These companies may be chosen from within any industry or economic sector. Investment will tend to focus on larger companies, such as those included in the S&P 500.

The Fund typically invests in fewer than 60 companies. On occasion, the Fund may invest in other securities when deemed appropriate.

The Fund may also hold money market instruments, both directly and indirectly, deposits, cash and near cash.

The Fund is not permitted to invest in derivatives for investment purposes, but derivatives may be used with the aim of reducing risk or managing the Fund more efficiently.

Fund features

This fund invests in assets which have the potential to produce superior longer term returns. Over some periods of time there can be significant falls, as well as rises, in the value of your investment.

Things you need to know

We've based this information on our current understanding of law and practice. We make every effort to ensure that this information is helpful, accurate and correct but it may change or may not apply to your personal circumstances. Before taking any action you should always check with an appropriate adviser, as we cannot accept responsibility for any action taken on the basis of this information alone.

All funds carry some risk and you should consider these risks before making an investment decision. The value of investments and any income from them is not guaranteed and can fall as well as rise and will be reduced in real terms by the effects of inflation. The main factors which may increase the risk of this fund include:

- the amount held in overseas assets,
- any concentration in specific areas or sectors,
- the amount invested in property or property shares,
- the use of derivatives and other instruments with the aim of generating outperformance.

Other charges which reduce the number of units you hold may apply. For further information please refer to your product Terms and Conditions.

For a more detailed explanation and other useful information about investments, please refer to our guide - "Making investments clearer - a guide for you", which can be found at www.zurich.co.uk.
